Rosso

Sartori Amarone Valpolicella on steroids.	94
Prisoner "Red Blend" Zinfandel, Cabernet, &amp; Petit Sirah blend. This wine has a cult following and after one taste you'll know why.	92
Oddero Barolo "The King of Italian Wines" Oddero is one of the oldest and most prestigious Barolo Wineries and this Barolo proves why.	84
Goldschmidt Hilary Oakville Cabernet Sauvignon This single vineyard Cabernet is across the street from Opus One in Napa, but is 1/5 the price!	83
Banfi Cum Laude "Super Tuscan" Blend of Cabernet, Merlot, Sangiovese &amp; Syrah. Yummy!	65
Luigi Giordano Barbaresco Cavanna If Barolo is the king of Italian wines, Barbaresco is their queen, same grape, just more elegant.	64
Palazzo Rosso Di Montalcino Baby Brunello!! Same grapes used to make expensive Brunellos, just not aged as long. 100% Sangiovese.	64
Antinori Chianti Classico Riserva The Antinori name speaks for itself when talking about Chiantis. Years of practice have made for a perfect Chianti.	64
Saldo Zinfandel From the makers of Prisoner! Gorgeous ripe and jammy berry flavors dominate this full-bodied, smooth-textured wine.	62
Belle Glos "Las Alturas" Pinot Noir Robust and full-flavored Pinot Noir by the Wagner family, makers of "Caymus Cabernet."	55
Ruffino "Modus" Super Tuscan Sangiovese, Cabernet and Merlot blend. This Super Tuscan is perfectly balanced. Full bodied, plenty of fruit and a smooth finish. Crafted in a Modern Tuscan Style	54
Buglioni Valpolicella Ripassa "Baby Amarone" For those people who appreciate big, full bodied, expensive wines, but could do without the expensive part. Same grape as Amarone.	51
Monsanto Chianti Classico Riserva Backbone of tannins, subtle fruit &amp; harmonious balance.	49
El Enemigo Malbec Full-bodied Malbec that pulls no punches and loaded with ripe fruit. The "Enemy" will soon become your friend!	49
Oberon (Napa Valley) Cabernet Sauvignon If you do not like this Cabernet, Mama will gladly drink it!	49
Willamette Valley "Whole Cluster" Pinot Noir This Oregon Pinot Noir is so good they were allowed to name the winery after Oregon's most famous region. Enjoy!	44
Franciscan Cabernet Sauvignon Exceptional value, round, rich in fruit concentration.	42
Roth Estate "Heritage" Red Blend A blend of Syrah, Petite Sirah and Zinfandel from One of the Most Well Known Wineries in Sonoma County. 2016 was an excellent vintage for Sonoma County.	42
Steele Merlot If you like Merlot you'll love this one from one of the most recognized wineries in California.	40
Angelo Negro Nebbiolo Nebbiolo is perhaps one of the most famous unrecognized wines in the world. Nebbiolo is the grape from which the famous Barolo and Barbaresco wines come from	39
Masi Campofiorin Ripasso "Super Venetian" Tuscany is not the only region that makes "super wines".	36
Conundrum "Red Blend" The Wagner Family (makers of Caymus) have done it again. Choosing this blend is easy, the Conundrum will be figuring out what grapes it's made from.	36
Michele Chiarlo Barbera d'Asti Asti, Italy is famous for its Spumante &amp; its Barbera, Vibrant fruit and few tannins.	33
Tedeschi Valpolicella Classic Italian red with great fruit and a superb finish.	33
